Students also gain experience construction curriculum for specific issues such as divorce, substance abuse, grief, and social skills.

Course Description:

We will address a range of topics of group counseling for children and adolescents, including theoretical constructs, legal and ethical requirements, specific types of groups and how to run them, and practical ideas for group facilitation. We will address groups at all authorization levels: Early Childhood, Elementary, Middle, and High School levels. Members of the class will have ample opportunity to lead, co-lead, participate in, and observe group interaction, as we will practice group processes during each class. The overall goal will be for students to have increasing competency in initiating and leading groups for children and adolescents. Specific objectives are for each student to:

- *lead a group
- *display awareness of one's own abilities to lead groups, including one's own ability to have appropriate boundaries with groups
- *develop a) highly-useable notebook/project that one can use when to lead group during practica or internship and b) a file of resources
- *be able to communicate the basic requirements for leading groups:
 - a. legal/ethical standards
 - b. initiating a group
 - c. leading/facilitating a group
 - d. communicating with others (such as parents, administrators) about groups
 - e. ending, summarizing, and making follow-up plans for groups.

Class Policies: Class attendance and participation is vital. Participation can be shown in a variety of ways: by actively listening, taking notes, and asking questions; by participating in practice groups wither as a leader, co-leader, participant, or observer; being prepared for class by reading assignments ahead of time; by successfully completing quizzes, the exam, daily assignments, self-and class assessments, and participating in discussions. If a class is missed, a thorough summary/outline of the readings is due the following week and a summary of a juried article regarding group practices will be due. If two classes are missed, the student may not pass the class.
