COURSE DESCRIPTION

This class is designed to provide instruction and supervision to first and second semester practicum students working with clients at the Lewis and Clark Community Counseling Center. Students will receive live supervision and feedback as designated by CACREP requirements. The focus of the class will be to provide ethical and competent client care while working within the parameters of time (typically one semester), student theoretical orientation and client issues/goals. Skills that will receive particular attention will include developing a therapeutic relationship, counselor empathy and compassion. The recognition of the impact of race, culture, gender, sexual orientation and poverty as well as other societal and political influences that define the context of the therapeutic relationship will be highlighted as well. A beginning knowledge of client assessment and the development of treatment planning (including articulating the goals, objectives and interventions) will be developed. The establishment of a self-care practice and development of professional boundaries will be central as students become aware of countertransference and vicarious trauma while growing professionally as a counselor.

DISABILITY SERVICES STATEMENT

If you have a disability that may impact your academic performance, you may request accommodations by submitting documentation to the Student Support Services Office in the Albany Quadrangle (503-768-7192). After you have submitted documentation and filled out paperwork there for the current semester requesting accommodations, staff in that office will notify me of the accommodations for which you are eligible.

CTSP DEPARTMENT ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is expected and required. If students miss their assigned practicum or internship class meeting, they are expected to come the following week to make up the absence. Missing more than ten percent of class time (i.e., 1.5 hours for a 15 hour class; 1 credit) may result in failure to complete the class. In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND ETHICS

Much of our class discussion and most of the written work you do for this class will contain information about clients. All such private information falls within our shared responsibility for maintaining its confidentiality of our clients. Guidelines for fulfilling our responsibilities in this regard include the following:

- Written materials referring to clients should either refer to them by their initials or a by a pseudonym.
- Video recordings of client counseling sessions should be kept secure (via Ironkey or within the Panopto system) and should be erased when they have been viewed.
- Classroom doors will be closed when we are discussing cases or viewing videos of actual clients.
- Written materials you turn in for review must follow confidentiality guidelines.
- Additionally, what we discuss in the classroom stays in the classroom and should not be subject of discussion outside of this course except for with your clinical supervisor where applicable.

ADDITIONAL REQUIRED AND RECOMMENDED READINGS

Additional articles, chapters, and other materials will be used during the course. These materials will be made available electronically or via hard copy handout(s) throughout the semester.

Readings (All copies can be found on Moodle):

Each week we meet as a class there may be electronic readings due. Please read the materials ahead of the class and come prepared to discuss them.

Recommended Readings:

On Moodle there may be suggested readings and additional resources. They are marked as additional materials and are not required for the course.

CASE PRESENTATION REQUIREMENT

Structure of Presentations

- Before talking about the client, present a brief overview of your theoretical orientation and your therapeutic relationship up to this point, such as how many sessions you have seen the client for, obstacles/successes in the relationship, etc. Our feedback will be, in part, designed to help you to find a better fit between your theory and your work with clients (about 10 minutes)
- After completing the theoretical orientation presentation and before presenting the client, clearly communicate to the class the reason you chose this client and the type of feedback you hope to receive. Say what you hope will be different for you after the presentation.
- Handout of presentation.
- Review/present written case emphasizing theoretical conceptualization (15 minutes)
- Class discussion and feedback 20-40 min

Handouts

Handout must include ALL of following sections/areas. List EACH category as noted below, and if the category is non-applicable, state this under the category. DO NOT OMIT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING CATEGORIES:

- Consultation Goals: What you want from the class in relation to feedback, advice, knowledge, etc. Communicate the reason you chose this client and what you hope will be different after your presentation.
- Demographics: Demographic data/Cultural considerations
- Risk Related Concerns: Suicidality, homocidality, abuse, interpersonal abuse, self-injurious behaviors, etc. Note if a safety plan has been completed.
- Presenting Concern(s): Chief complaint/presenting problem/concerns/issues
- History of Concern(s): History of the present illness
- Family and Relational Data: Family relationships, issues, influences, and relevant history
- Psychiatric/Medical Data: Medical/RX history for client and family
- Substance Use, Abuse, Dependence History: Client and Family
- Cognitive/Affective/Behavioral/Physical Status: Mini Mental Status Exam, how the client presents in session
- Client strengths/weaknesses
- Diagnostic Impressions: DSM-5 diagnosis and brief explanation
- Current Treatment Plan: Treatment plan identifies concerns, goals, and objectives
- Transference/Counter-transference concerns
- Ethical Issues or Concerns:

EVALUATION

Overview

This class is graded using Credit/No Credit. Each student will be evaluated in the areas of counseling competence including use effective use of micro skills, theoretical knowledge, self-awareness, and ethical practice. Case presentations during group supervision, case conceptualization, effectiveness of oral and written communication, as well as openness to feedback and supervision will all be considered in the grade. Evaluation methods may include (any and/or all) written work, observation, video or audio recording review, transcriptions, case presentations, supervisor evaluations and in class participation along with timely completion of all class assignments. Evaluation of satisfactory performance will be made by your instructor.

Additional notes about grades:

- The instructor will make final decisions about grading.
- Failure to complete class requirements may include a deferred grade as well as the possible enrollment in an additional semester of practicum.
- Failure to complete the required number of direct service hours in a semester may result in a deferred grade with the possible enrollment in an additional semester of practicum.
- If your direct hours are low, you are strongly encouraged to pursue a secondary practicum! Keep your instructor informed of how your direct service hours are accruing on practicum.
- Failure to follow ACA Ethical Guidelines of the profession will require a meeting to determine the next steps for addressing the concerns.
- Some students require more than two semesters of practicum to develop and demonstrate the requirements of a master's level counselor.
- Students must be ready to move onto Internship in order to pass Practicum.
- Occasionally personal issues or life events will make it impossible for a student to move forward in their growth as a counselor and they will be encouraged or required to take some time off for self-care.

Requirements for credit:

- To successfully complete the clinical practicum, the student must satisfactorily complete a minimum of 100 clock-hours of counseling activities with at least 40 of these hours in direct contact with clients over the two semesters of practicum.
- Students must keep approved and complete documentation of client sessions and other documentation required by the Lewis and Clark Counseling Center.
- Students must receive minimal 1s and no 0s on the Professional Qualities Evaluation and must perform at a satisfactory level on the Practicum Evaluation Form.
- Activities that can be counted toward the 100 hours may include such professional activities as consultation, coordination, supervision, documentation, case conceptualization, and research/study/learning related to counseling or client issues. In the course of completing these activities, the student will be expected to demonstrate a wide variety of counseling techniques and communication skills.

- Complete one written case presentation/extended check-in
- Submit weekly documentation of supervision [CARE note] session to faculty supervisor during class.
- Upload at least one resource on Moodle that you found helpful in your counseling work this semester.
- Satisfactory evaluations from on-site supervisor and on-campus instructor/supervisor. This includes satisfactory responses to ethical dilemmas and challenges. (Upload these to the PMHC & PMHCA Practicum/Internship Moodle page).
- Attendance and active participation in on-campus intern supervision class for two full semesters. If you miss a class you must attend another section the following week.
- Demonstration of ability to accept and respond responsibly to both site and campus supervision.
- Demonstration of ability to work collaboratively with colleagues at practicum site(s) and on campus.
