NONDISCRIMINATION STATEMENT

Lewis & Clark College adheres to a nondiscriminatory policy with respect to employment, enrollment, and program. Lewis & Clark does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, sex, religion, age, marital status, national origin, the presence of any physical or sensory disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression and has a firm commitment to promote the letter and spirit of all equal opportunity and civil rights laws, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and their implementing regulations.

DISABILITY SERVICES STATEMENT

If you have a disability that may impact your academic performance, you may request accommodations by submitting documentation to the Student Support Services Office in the Albany Quadrangle (503-768-7192). After you have submitted documentation and filled out paperwork there for the current semester requesting accommodations, staff in that office will notify me of the accommodations for which you are eligible.

CPSY DEPARTMENTAL ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time will be made up by completing extra assignments designed by the instructor. Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 4.5 hours of a 45 hour class (3 credits), 3.0 hours for a 30 hour class (2 credits) or 1.5 hours for a 15 hour class (1 credit.) In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Each student should decide for him/herself what information to disclose. Students are advised to be prudent when making self-disclosures. The program cannot guarantee confidentiality of student disclosures given the group environment, although personal comments should be considered private and confidential – and remain only in the classroom – unless an exception to confidentiality applies.

ETHICAL AND PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

The Art Therapy profession requires a high level of personal integrity, self-awareness, and personal maturity. These attributes may also be considered by faculty in assessing the student's overall grades, and qualifications for a career as a professional art therapist. All students in the class will demonstrate behavior that is consistent with the Codes of Ethics of the American Counseling Association and the Art Therapy Credentials Board, in class and at their practicum sites.

SUPERVISOR EVALUATIONS AND OBSERVATIONS

will be assessed, and performance at site will be incorporated into class evaluations. Students are expected to meet or exceed expectations within their evaluations at a rate of 80% by the end of the semester. Faculty supervisors will work closely with students and site to ensure any issues or inadequacies are resolved or remediated in a timely manner.

The Practicum Manual will be reviewed extensively within the course, however please refer to the manual for any questions regarding expectations or requirements with-in practicum.

CELL PHONES

Cell phones must be silenced and text messaging is not allowed during class time. If there is an emergency you may exit the class to use your cell.

CLASS PREPARATION

You must complete all assigned readings prior to attending class. This will allow us to focus on application of readings in class.

ASSIGNMENTS AND COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance and participation in all classes

- a. Attending all classes and being on time.
- b. Giving attention to the instructor and/or other students when they are making a presentation.
- c. Demonstrating ability to recognize and use subtle non-verbal communication cues to assess your impact on your peers and participate in class.
- d. Demonstrating ability to be open about discussing the impact of your comments on your peers.
- e. Coming to class prepared (having read the assignment for the day and watched any assigned videos)
- f. Contributing to in-class discussion based on the topics of discussion and the readings assigned. Contributions may include how you feel about the material but merely articulating your feelings is not sufficient. You are expected to put those feelings in context of your thoughts and analysis of the material.
- g. Engaging in group discussions with attention and energy.
- h. Asking questions of the instructor and/or other students regarding the material examined in that class.

- i. Providing examples to support or challenge the issues talked about in class. Dealing with other students and/or the instructor in a respectful fashion.
- j. Listening actively. Students will be asked questions related to the course's readings randomly in class by other students and by the instructor. Your participation in small group discussions is also required.
- k. Adhering to all Professional Qualities. The form for evaluating Professional Qualities requirements will be distributed in class.
- l. Making comments or giving observations about topics in the course, especially those that tie in the classroom material to "real world" problems, or try to integrate the content of the course.

2. Weekly Response Art

Students are expected to bring to class response art that they've created outside of class time. Response art should be created in relation to experiences at students' practicum site; this could include client interactions, site supervisor relationship, personal feelings related to practicum placement, anti-racism/decolonization of art therapy practice, social justice, etc. Due each week of the semester.

Weekly response art
b.A.5	Recognize the impact of personal and professional development through supervision, self-care practices appropriate to the Art Therapy professional role, and continuing education.
	Work reflects on client interactions, site supervisor relationship, personal feelings related to practicum placement.
	Prepared with response art weekly
	SOAP / Process notes, as assigned

3. Practicum goals (not graded)

Students will think critically about their goals and expectations for their practicum experience. Students will create at least two realistic and appropriate goals to work towards during the semester. Goals will be shared within the supervision course and posted on Moodle discussion board. Goals will be reviewed and referenced throughout the semester and revised as necessary. Practicum goals due week 3.

GOALS
Content	Goals are thoughtful and reflect numerous areas of growth relevant to student's practicum site, personal development, professional identity and social justice practices as an art therapist, and ethics.  Goals are specific, measurable, and achievable.
Clarity of writing	Writing is clear and concise. Unbiased, professional language is used.
Application of Goals	Student identifies methods of achieving goals, goals are discussed and revised as needed throughout the semester. Student seeks support in achieving goals when needed.

4. Brief Case Presentation, Art Offering Facilitation and Reflection

Students will present on a current group they are running, reflecting on the structured purpose of the group, the demographics of the group members, the stage of group formation, and any other relevant information. Using the Art Offering Development Reflection form, students will then design an art offering and facilitate it for the class.

The art offering will consider:

1. The relevant treatment goals within the group.
2. Developmental stage of art in relation to clients, any cognitive or physical strengths or challenges that may impact clients' ability to engage in the art process and possible adaptations or accommodations.
3. Structure of the art offering and any situational factors that might impact the success of the offering.
4. Student's ethical and theoretical framework in relation to their offering.
5. Prepare 3 specific questions for feedback from peers and instructor with regard to this group/offering.

Students are expected to demonstrate the ability to utilize supervision for feedback and guidance through the group discussion of prepared questions and other issues/questions that may arise from the process of direct facilitation with the class.

Due on the week that a student signs up. Peers will be responsible for participating in the art offering and providing constructive feedback to the presenter.

5. Supervisor evaluation (No grade, P/F)

On-site supervisor will complete supervisor evaluation, and review with student in supervision at the end of the semester. Evaluation will be submitted through Taskstream.

6. Supervisor observations (No grade, P/F)

Supervisor observations are completed twice per semester. Supervisors must observe student facilitating art group and complete the observation form. The second per term observation form should be completed prior to the supervisor evaluation. Due weeks 7 and week 13. Each observation must be submitted to Taskstream
