CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Students participate in art therapy faculty facilitated supervision to complement their practicum work in the community. The focus of the class is on providing ethical and competent client care. Skills that receive particular attention include the use of response art to aid in developing a therapeutic relationship, counselor empathy, compassion, and art therapist identity.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This class is designed to provide instruction and supervision to first and second semester practicum students working with clients at their Art Therapy Practicum Sites. Students will receive live supervision and feedback as designated by CAAHEP requirements. The focus of the class will be to provide ethical and competent client care. Skills that will receive particular attention will include the use of response art to aid in developing a therapeutic relationship, counselor empathy and compassion. The recognition of the impact of race, culture, gender, sexual orientation and poverty as well as other societal and political influences that define the context of the therapeutic relationship will be highlighted as well. The establishment of a self-care practice and development of professional boundaries will be central as students become aware of countertransference and vicarious trauma while growing professionally as an art therapist.

CAAHEP STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

SLO- G - Recognize and respond appropriately to ethical and legal dilemmas using ethical decision-making models, supervision, and professional and legal consultation when necessary.

SLO-L - Continuously deepen self-understanding through personal growth experiences, reflective practice, and personal art-making to strengthen a personal connection to the creative process, assist in self-awareness, promote well-being, and guide professional practice.
SLO-M - Pursue professional development through supervision, accessing current Art Therapy literature, research, best practices, and continuing educational activities to inform clinical practice.
SLO-N - Recognize the impact of oppression, prejudice, discrimination, and privilege on access to mental health care, and develop responsive practices that include collaboration, empowerment, advocacy, and social justice action.

CTSP DEPARTMENTAL ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time will be made up by completing extra assignments designed by the instructor. Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 4.5 hours of a 45 hour class (3 credits), 3.0 hours for a 30 hour class (2 credits) or 1.5 hours for a 15 hour class (1 credit.) In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Each student should decide for him/herself what information to disclose. Students are advised to be prudent when making self-disclosures. The program cannot guarantee confidentiality of student disclosures given the group environment, although personal comments should be considered private and confidential – and remain only in the classroom – unless an exception to confidentiality applies.

ETHICAL AND PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

The Art Therapy profession requires a high level of personal integrity, self-awareness, and personal maturity. These attributes may also be considered by faculty in assessing the student's overall grades, and qualifications for a career as a professional art therapist. All students in the class will demonstrate behavior that is consistent with the Codes of Ethics of the American Counseling Association and the Art Therapy Credentials Board, in class and at their practicum sites.

Supervisor evaluations and observations will be assessed, and performance at site will be incorporated into class evaluations. Students are expected to meet or exceed expectations within their evaluations at a rate of 80% by the end of the semester. Faculty supervisors will work closely with students and site to ensure any issues or inadequacies are resolved or remediated in a timely manner.

The Practicum Manual will be reviewed extensively within the course, however please refer to the manual for any questions regarding expectations or requirements with-in practicum.

The use of AI software is not permitted for any assignment or activity in this course without the prior approval of the instructor. Violation of this policy will be considered a violation of the Graduate School's Academic Performance standards.

CELL PHONES

Cell phones must be silenced and text messaging is not allowed during class time. If there is an emergency you may exit the class to use your cell.

CLASS PREPARATION

You must complete all assigned readings prior to attending class. This will allow us to focus on application of readings in class.

ASSIGNMENTS AND COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance and participation in all classes

- a. Attending all classes and being on time.
- b. Giving attention to the instructor and/or other students when they are making a presentation.
- c. Demonstrating ability to recognize and use subtle non-verbal communication cues to assess your impact on your peers and participate in class.
- a. Demonstrating ability to be open about discussing the impact of your comments on your peers.
- b. Coming to class prepared (having read the assignment for the day and watched any assigned videos)
- c. Contributing to in-class discussion based on the topics of discussion and the readings assigned. Contributions may include how you feel about the material but merely articulating your feelings is not sufficient. You are expected to put those feelings in context of your thoughts and analysis of the material.
- d. Engaging in group discussions with attention and energy.
- e. Asking questions of the instructor and/or other students regarding the material examined in that class.
- f. Providing examples to support or challenge the issues talked about in class. g. Dealing with other students and/or the instructor in a respectful fashion. h.

Listening actively. Students will be asked questions related to the course's readings randomly in class by other students and by the instructor. Your participation in small group discussions is also required.

- i. Adhering to all Professional Qualities. The form for evaluating Professional Qualities requirements will be distributed in class.
- j. Making comments or giving observations about topics in the course, especially those that tie in the classroom material to "real world" problems, or try to integrate the content of the course.

2. Weekly Response Art

Students are expected to bring to class response art that they've created outside of class time. Response art should be created in relation to experiences at student's practicum site; this could include client interactions, site supervisor relationship, personal feelings related to practicum placement, anti-racism/decolonization of art therapy practice, social justice, etc. Due each week of the semester.

Weekly response art
b.A.5	Recognize the impact of personal and professional development through supervision, self-care practices appropriate to the Art Therapy professional role, and continuing education.
	Work reflects on client interactions, site supervisor relationship, personal feelings related to practicum placement.
	Prepared with response art weekly
	SOAP / Process notes, as assigned

3. Practicum goals (not graded)

Students will think critically about their goals and expectations for their practicum experience. Students will create at least two realistic and appropriate goals to work towards during the semester. Goals will be shared within the supervision course and posted on Moodle discussion board. Goals will be reviewed and referenced throughout the semester and revised as necessary. Practicum goals due week 4.

GOALS
Content	Goals are thoughtful and reflect numerous areas of growth relevant to student's practicum site, personal development, professional identity and social justice practices as an art therapist, and ethics. Goals are specific, measurable, and achievable.

Clarity of writing	Writing is clear and concise. Unbiased, professional language is used.
Application of Goals	Student identifies methods of achieving goals, goals are discussed and revised as needed throughout the semester. Student seeks support in achieving goals when needed.

4. Brief Case Presentation and Image Theater

Students will present on a dilemma or challenge they are experiencing within their placement related to a client, group, ethical, and/or systemic issue. The student will create a piece of response art which represents the dilemma from their perspective. Case presentations should be about 10-15 minutes and should include:

1. Behavioral and process observations (related to art media and client's artistic process), if applicable
2. Developmental stage of art in relation to client and images or replicas of client artwork, if applicable
3. Group dynamics, stage of group formation, if applicable
4. Themes and/or metaphors in the client's art, if applicable
5. Relevant treatment goals, theoretical orientation (e.g. CBT, person centered, etc), if applicable
6. Cultural factors, issues related to diversity, equity, and inclusion, if applicable
7. Student's ethical and/or theoretical framework in relation to their dilemma
8. Type of feedback student needs from peers and instructor/demonstrate ability to utilize supervision for feedback and guidance

Due on the week that student signs up. Peers and instructor will be responsible for creating response art to provide feedback on the case presentation.

Content	Case presentation covers relevant material described above
Organization/ Clarity	Presentation is clear and concise. Information about clients is shared in a respectful, professional manner..

Participati on art offering	Students will participate in art making and verbal feedback to provide classmate with concrete, constructive feedback to their questions.
c.A.1	Incorporate ethical and cultural considerations in materials selection and therapeutic applications.

5. Supervisor evaluation (No grade, P/F)

On-site supervisor will complete supervisor evaluation, and review with student in supervision at the end of the semester. Evaluation will be submitted through Taskstream. Due week 14.

6. Supervisor observations (No grade, P/F)

Supervisor observations are completed twice per semester. Supervisors must observe student facilitating art group and complete the observation form. The second per term observation form should be completed prior to the supervisor evaluation. Due weeks 7 and week 13. Each observation must be submitted to Taskstream
