Catalogue Description and Course Goals

Instruction and practice in developing group treatments for children and adolescents in clinical and school settings. Students explore group dynamics, potential problems encountered when running children's groups, and generalization and maintenance of behavioral change. Specific issues including divorce, substance use, grief, and social skills will also be addressed.

In this class, we will address topics ranging from very practical "how to" applications of group counseling to more theoretical constructs of group dynamics and group interaction. There will be a heavy emphasis placed on the experiential and dialogic aspects of group learning in this class. The primary goal of this class is to help participants increase skills, comfort level, and flexibility as group leaders and group counselors.

Course Requirements

Pre-Assessment-Part One

As a major component of this course, you will be supervised as you co-lead a social skills counseling group for children with students from Ron Russell Middle School in the David Douglas school district on nine scheduled days during class time online. In order to make appropriate group leadership pairings, please write briefly on these questions (about 400 words total): 1) your history/experience/familiarity with group counseling or leading groups; 2) skills you imagine are most important in group counseling leadership; 3) strengths and challenges you bring to group leadership; 4) why group counseling is important. This assignment will be completed in class.

Pre-Assessment-Part Two

As you co-lead the sixth-grade groups, you will receive supervision and evaluation on your participation, efforts and growth within these group sessions. In part, your skills will be evaluated in reference to those listed in the Group Leadership Dialectical Skills (page 5). You are asked to evaluate yourself on each of the four main dialectical skill listed, including the following: 1) use a four-point scale (i.e. 4=exceptionally competent, 1=most challenged by); 2) add a few sentences for each dialectical skill in addition to the rating, describing your strength or challenge with it; 3) also add comments regarding any of the additional dialectical skills listed as relevant to your own skill development or areas of challenge. This assignment will be completed in class.

Mid-Term and End-of-Term Evaluation Rubric

The criteria listed on this document will be used in this course to evaluate students at both the mid-term and at the end of the course. The professors will be identifying both strengths as well as challenges, adding appropriate comments and goals that will facilitate further personal and professional development. Students are expected to implement supervision and feedback from the mid-term evaluation in the remainder of the term.

514 Journal SP 24

Co-leaders are required to complete 9 journal entries this term (of approximately 500 words each) reflecting on their developing leadership skills. Co-leaders share with both supervisors (via Google Docs) one document named "514 Journal SP 24, Last Names" in which all journal entries will be included. Share the entries with supervisors by 9am on the Monday it is due. Supervisors will send back comments before the next group. Use clear and effective spelling, punctuation, and grammar in communicating ideas succinctly across all levels (sentence, paragraph and whole paper) with helpful transitions between each provided. Co-leaders should take the lead on alternating sections per week, naming who did which. Supervisors will grade each paper (i.e. 4=Exceeds; 3=Meets; 2=Approaches; 1=Does not meet) based on inclusion of the following headings and criteria:

Section 1: Looking Back on Session #?

1a: Narrative Reflection (Describe a positive or challenging moment in the past group session and include relevant information about group setting, members, session, and the piece of the curriculum being addressed)

1b: Skills Reflection (Reflect on relevant dialectical group leadership skills were utilized or at play and summarize what was learned as a person and professional)

1c: Reading Reflection (Provide a brief reference to an interesting or helpful idea from the reading that relates to your group work)

1d: Supervision Requests (Note any relevant questions, concerns, or requests for supervision for last week)

Section 2: Looking Forward to Session #?

2a: Lecture Reflection (Share what was helpful from viewing the lecture online)

2b: Session Modifications (Note any changes to the curriculum and a rationale for those changes based on identified group needs)

2c: Session plan (Include text copied from the "brief curriculum" for the session with subheadings for opening, body, energizers, and closing. Include which co-leader will take the lead on each item)

2d: Supervision Requests (Note any relevant questions, concerns, or requests for supervision for this week)

Practicum Group Data Presentation

On the last day of class, students are asked to present qualitative and quantitative group evaluation data (maintaining anonymity for group members) to the class and school professionals for reflection and discussion. Students create and present a brief, 5-minute presentation of 5-7 slides regarding group data and findings (using a shared in the class Google Slides presentation) including the following:

- Introduction Slide: Image of group, group name, demographic information, etc.
- Quantitative data: Provide one or more images/graphs that represents the cumulative results of the weekly survey data you collected each week in your group: Focus on relevant aspects of the data (e.g. whole group change over time reflected in pre/post data or weekly survey data, individual student comparisons, etc.)
- Qualitative: Provide 3-5 relevant examples of visual images and/or verbal transcripts from the weekly sessions or the closing card activity that speak to or stand out from the overall experience in your group.
- Summary reflections: Briefly address: 1) what the data tells you in terms of group effectiveness; 2) What you have learned in the process of leading this group; and 3) What you would recommend for the sixth-grade group project moving forward.

CPSY Departmental Attendance Policy

Class attendance is expected and required. Any missed class time will be made up by completing extra assignments designed by the instructor (see below). Missing more than ten percent of class time may result in failure to complete the class. This would be 4.5 hours of a 45-hour class (3 credits), 3.0 hours for a 30-hour class (2 credits) or 1.5 hours for a 15-hour class (1 credit.) In case of extreme hardship and also at the discretion of the instructor, a grade of incomplete may be given for an assignment or the entire course. In such cases, the work to be submitted in order to remove the incomplete must be documented appropriately and stated deadlines met. Students are expected to be on time to class and tardiness may be seen as an absence that requires make-up work.

Make-up Assignment

Any significant missed class time will require a standard make-up assignment, due the following week: A three-page paper in which the student: 1) describes what was learned from interviewing two individuals who attended the missed class time; 2) discusses the readings due during the week missed and includes comments, questions and what was learned; 3) discusses challenges/successes encountered in leading the practicum group that week (approx. 400 words). This assignment is to be shared with both professors on the student's shared Google doc.

Disability Services Statement:

If you have a disability that may impact your academic performance, you may request accommodations by submitting documentation to the Student Support Services Office in the Albany Quadrangle (x7156). Graduate School Grade Policy

"The grade of B- is the lowest grade that carries graduate credit. Courses receiving grades lower than B- will not carry graduate credit, but will be included in the student's cumulative G.P.A. A student receiving a grade below B- in a required course must repeat the course and earn a passing grade.
